FROM OWYHEE.

From the Owyhee Avalanche of the 23d of Feb we have the following

STAGE STOCK STOLEN

Last week we received the news of stock being stolen by Indians within one mile of Camp McDermit. Immediately after our last issue a letter was received here stating that six head of stage horses were stolen at Rebel Creek about twenty miles from Camp Winfield Scott and forty below Camp McDermit. The notice by the Humboldt Register in addition to private letters received, state that the post of Camp McDermit has also been a sort of standing invitation to the Indians to come round and steal with safety. The new District of Owyhee and the regulations thereof will ere long punch up a little life, activity and usefulness thereaway.

MESSRS. DURHAM & JACKSON,

In the early part of the week, were running a pack train, laden with grub and tools, from Silver to the Poorman mine. Work on the tunnel has commenced. Rough weather has prevented our intended visit to the works on the Poorman, Woodstock and other ledges this week.

ERROR IN AMOUNT.

In our item on the result of some first class Silver Cord ore we gave $2,600 per ton and it should have been $26,000. There were several tons of immensely rich gold ore taken out last Fall and we have little doubt but that many more will this year.

CHINESE DIGGINGS

We are acquainted with parties who are spending their time in the gulches and foot hills for diggings to sell to Chinamen in the spring, and are informed that they are meeting with success. Many places in the foot hills in the direction of Snake river are known to contain gold. In the extended search made for diamonds one year ago it was often reported that gold was found in dirt that could be made to pay from two to five dollars per day, and much better diggings were—as per report—discovered on or near the sources of Boulder creek. The Chinamen are examining these outside places, and ditches were commenced last fall to convey water for use in summer. A large flat between Wagontown and Camp Lyon was prospected by Chinese last fall, and it is believed will pay three to five dollars per day. A company of them commenced a ditch last fall to carry water to the flat—paying money to some of the laborers, but most of them are to get water for pay.

With the great extent of this class of diggings, and the low rich gulches yet owned and worked by the white population, there will be much gold dust produced in this county next summer.

STAGE PROPRIETORS CHANGED

Hill Beachey has purchased the interest of his partners in the Railroad Stage Line from Silver City to Hunter's Station, and is now sole proprietor. The purchase and change were completed on Wednesday of this week. He started down over the line yesterday and his entire energies and time will be given to improve the line and time—which latter has always been excellent. The new military district and the useful actions of its commander, with the additional powers conferred upon him, inspires Mr. Beachey with renewed energy and belief that his line will be protected and his past labors not be sacrificed. We most heartily congratulate him upon his success and future prospects. He has sold his line from Owyhee to Boise City to Messrs Hailey, Greathouse & Co, who will continue to run it with the same regularity and time as under the old management. This Company is well known as the proprietors of the daily line from Boise City to Umatilla, Oregon, and from Boise City to Idaho City. The public will be equally well served all round.

SEVERE CRITICISM OF NAPOLEON'S POLICY.—Alfred Assolant, a French journalist, has written a pamphlet on the foreign policy of Napoleon's Government, which is so severe in its criticisms, not to say denunciation, of the Imperial wisdom, that no one in Paris had the courage to print it. The Paris correspondent of the London Herald, however, has seen the work and makes some extracts from it, a part of which we subjoin:

On the 1st of May a word from the French Government would have prevented the war; on the 5th of July a telegram would, without striking a blow, have obtained for us the left bank of the Rhine, or, at the very least, would have deprived the Prussians of all the fruits of the battle of Sadowa but the Government hesitated—it was not ready, the army, which costs us such a heap of money (and which, to do it justice, eagerly awaited the signal for the onset,) was quietly left in its quarters, it had not been foreseen that the business would be so soon over, the merits of the needle gun had not been dreamed of, though it had been in use in Prussia for 18 years. (And, by the way, what can be said of the military attaches we keep up at Berlin, Vienna and elsewhere? Do they keep their eyes shut? or is their mind a perfect blank?)

Thanks to the Mexican expedition, the cadres were only half full. In short, the Prussians took time by the forelock—they marched, fought, conquered and negotiated so fast that the whole of Germany lay prostrated at their feet before France had made up her mind. And now, although M de Lavalette has taken care to proclaim that we are perfectly satisfied, and that such is the way we wished to see the treaties of 1815 torn up, it is contemplated to arm the whole of the French people, the arsenals are being filled, and we are threatened with drill and the goosestep till the consummation of ages. Who would have dreamed, when parliamentary government existed, that a Prussian corporal, whose hard and narrow brain had not two ideas to it, would cause so much excitement in France, and that, to obtain protection from that superannuated fire eater, it would be proposed to teach one million and a half of French men the use of the Chassepot rifle? What bitter mockery of fate. The peace of Europe at the mercy of a maniac, an obstinate worshipper of the divine right of kings, a hypocrite and a devotee! But fate is a term devoid of meaning. It is not a fate that has struck us down and humbled us, nor the genius of King William, nor that of the counsellor Bismarck. It is the accumulated mass of faults, blunders and mistakes we have committed, or allowed to be committed, for the last fifteen years. By what means can these faults be repaired and how can we avoid the fearful war which even now every one foresees?

BREADSTUFFS.—The Walla Walla Statesman of 1st inst says:

A gentleman who spent the last year in Montana and whose judgment may be relied upon, expresses the opinion that with the coming season the people of Montana must depend upon the country this side of the mountains for their supplies of breadstuffs. He bases his opinion on the fact that there has been very little snow upon the mountains and as a consequence the water in the Upper Missouri will be low, thus rendering it impossible for the St Louis steamers to ascend with their usual freight. In the event that communication with St Louis by means of steamers is cut off, Blackfoot will have to depend upon Salt Lake and this country for her supplies of breadstuffs. This is the present aspect of affairs, and with it we have the prospect of an advance in the price of flour, and the other staples which our Valley produces in such abundant profusion. The amount of breadstuffs that Salt Lake can send to market, at best, is limited, and is by no means commensurate with the wants of Montana, and hence we may calculate on being called upon to furnish the bulk of the supplies.

THE ASSIGNABILITY OF THE RIGHT OF ACTION.—An important decision has just been rendered by the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, in which the long mooted and much vexed question as to the assignability of the right of action to set aside fraudulent conveyances is determined. The suit has been pending for over thirteen years, mainly on a question as to whether the right of action to set aside a fraudulent conveyance was or was not assignable. The Referee, the late Judge Kent, decided in the affirmative and gave judgment for the plaintiff who brought the suit as assignee. Appeal was taken to the General Term of the Supreme Court, where a full Bench decided that the right of action was not assignable, and reversed the Referee's decision on that ground alone. The plaintiff then took it to the Court of last resort, and that tribunal has now determined that such a course of action is assignable, thus reversed the decision of the Supreme Court at General Term, and affirmed that of the Referee.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 2.

Congressional

WASHINGTON Feb 28 —In the Senate Trumbull called up the bill to establish the Department of Education. All pending amendments were rejected and the bill passed.

On motion of Sumner the Committee on Foreign Relations were discharged from the further consideration of the subject of reciprocity with the Sandwich Islands. They were also discharged from the further consideration of the subject of the International Copyright Law.

In the House on motion of Rigby, of California, the Committee on Public Lands was discharged from the further consideration of the bill in aid the Stockton and Copperopolis Railroad.

WASHINGTON Feb 28 —In the Senate Wilson of Mass. unanimously reported adversely on the House bill to reduce the pay of officers of the army which he said was really a bill to increase the pay of the officers of the navy. The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the bill to temporarily increase the pay of officers of the army.

Bucklew of Pennsylvania entered a motion to reconsider the vote in the passage of the bill to establish a department of education.

The Senate then proceeded to consider the miscellaneous appropriation bill. The question being upon an amendment to provide for the payment of certain Assessors of Southern States.

In the House, Raymond, of New York, moved the reference of his resolution offered last evening concerning the Canadian Confederation to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, with leave to report at any time. The resolution was so referred but without authority to report at any time, this requiring unanimous consent.

Kasson, of Iowa, reported the Indian appropriation bill, with the Senate amendments, some of which were concurred in.

Stevens of Penn., from the Committee of Conference on the omnibus bill, reported that the committee were unable to agree. Another committee was asked for.

Banks, of Mass., being asked whether the Committee on Foreign Affairs intended to report concerning Mexican affairs, replied that the committee did not intend to make any report on the subject at this time.

Cooper, of Tenn., reported a bill to amend the organic act of Arizona, passed. Also a bill amendatory of the organic act of Colorado, passed.

On motion of Ashley of Ohio, to suspend the rules on the Senate tariff bill, a vote was taken and resulted ayes 108 noes 64 which not being two-thirds the motion was lost and that kills the bill for this session.

Morrill of Vermont, made a last effort for the tariff. He said the House last session passed an amendatory tariff bill of only nine pages, but the Senate on the 2d of February returned substantially a new bill, which it was impossible for the Ways and Means Committee to consider properly. It was clear concessions would have to be made. He therefore, to bring on a final vote, moved to discharge the committee from further consideration of the subject.

The remarks in yesterday's proceedings attributed to Sumner, of Massachusetts, should have been given to Chandler, of Michigan, who to-day proceeded to make an explanation. He said the appointments by the treasury department in Michigan were men notoriously unfitted, and moreover the Secretary had employed Dan Voorhies to travel South on a secret mission.

Hendricks, of Indiana denied this.

Sheridan, of Ohio, appealed to Chandler not to consume the time of the Senate.

The amendment to the miscellaneous appropriation bill providing for the payment of southern assessors, was adopted by 24 to 10.

Morrill moved to suspend the rules to allow him to introduce a new tariff bill, making an uniform increase of 20 per cent on all duties except those on sugar, coffee, tea, and railroad iron. Lost—ayes 94, noes 71.

Casson, of Iowa, moved the suspension of the rules to allow him to introduce a joint resolution relating to the tariff on wool and woolens, stating that it only contained recommendations to the Ways and Means Committee. Lost.

CHICAGO March 1 —The Senate last evening considered the tax bill. The amendments offered by the Finance Committee were nearly all agreed to. They are not numerous, except in the administrative sections, to which several new ones are added. The Senate refused to strike out the tax on advertisements.

Conness of California offered an amendment, which was adopted, to tax grape brandy 50 cts per gallon with a penalty for the manufacture and sale of a spurious article.

The House in the evening after debate, passed the bill disposing of public lands in homesteads in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Florida, modified only so as to exclude those who have voluntarily given aid and comfort to the rebellion.

Sprague moved to appoint a Committee of Conference on the Bankrupt bill. Stevens moved to table the bill. Lost—ayes 65, noes 73. A conference was then ordered and the friends of the measure are now full of confidence.

A lengthy debate occurred on the compound interest funding bill.

Lynch of Maine moved to table the Senate amendments. Negatived by 13 to 107.

Conkling moved to concur in the Senate amendment. Negatived—ayes, 55 noes, 83. A Committee of Conference was then asked.

General Thayer, Senator elect from Nebraska, arrived at Washington last evening and submitted the action of the legislature. The President will soon issue a proclamation declaring Nebraska a State in the Union.

The Senate, yesterday, agreed to take a vote on the Colorado bill to-day.

Most of the Committees of the House and the Senate have cleaned the docket of a large number of dead bills, and memorials have been transferred to the archives. The House insists on the transfer of the Indian Bureau to the War Department.

The members elect of the Fortieth Congress have nearly all arrived.

An analysis of the vote taken yesterday on Morrill's motion to suspend the rules on the tariff bill shows the ayes 100 Republicans and 5 Democrats—total 105; noes 39 Republicans and 24 Democrats—total, 63. Then in subsequent attempts of Stevens, Morrill and Kasson to save some portions of the bill relating to the wool and iron interests, there was still sharper competition; and each helped to kill the other's motion for spite.

WASHINGTON, March 1 —In the House, the Senate bill to aid the construction of a railroad from San Francisco to Humboldt Bay, was considered. McRuer and Bigby spoke in favor of it. Higby considered the present condition of the land as worthless.

Julian of Indiana, from the Committee on Public Lands, said facts which had come to his knowledge since the last session, would prevent him from supporting the measure. There were many remonstrances, on account of the owners of large tracts of land going to work to urge the passage of the bill to benefit their private fortunes.

McRuer denied hearing of any remonstrance or opposition from California. He had heard of only one remonstrance, and that was from a party in Detroit.

After further debate, Delano of Ohio moved that the bill be laid on the table. Agreed to.

The Reconstruction and other Bills Vetoed

NEW YORK March 2 —The Times' special says there is not a shadow of foundation for the statement that the President is withholding his veto message on the Reconstruction bill with the understanding, and to aid Democrats in filibustering against the Louisiana bill. Excepting Reverdy Johnson, no Democrat has had an interview with the President for the past three days, and Reverdy Johnson did not advise as to a single bill. When the Message appears it will present its own excuse for delay. It will positively be delivered to day. It was read at the Cabinet meeting yesterday and approved. Several Democrats inform me that there is no intention on their part to delay the passage of the Louisiana bill.

The veto of the tenure of office bill will also be sent in to day. The Democrats will resist the military appropriation bill. It was not received till 10 o'clock last night. It will be vetoed when it comes back, because of the amendment depriving the President, as Commander in Chief of control of the army, but it may be passed.

The President sent his veto Message of Reconstruction and tenure of office bills, the first to the House and the other to the Senate. There will be much filibustering, but neither will pass.

Defeat of the Tariff Bill.

NEW YORK March 1 —Horace Greeley writes from Washington that the primary cause of the defeat of the Tariff bill was the absence of Conkling, and Morrill from the Committee of Ways and Means leaving the committee in the hands of enemies who overloaded the bill with amendments. The master spirit of the intrigue was Hooper, of Massachusetts who aspires to be Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee at the next session.

Admission of Nebraska.

WASHINGTON March 1 —The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the fundamental conditions imposed by Congress on Nebraska have been satisfied and accepted, and that the admission of said State into the Union is now completed.

Proposed Expeditions to Sonora and Mexico.

Two circulars have been widely circulated, one having in view an armed expedition to develop the mineral resources of Sonora and Mexico and the other signed by Gen R. Clay Crawford. The object being to organize a liberating army for Mexico. Their movements do not receive the sanction of the republican government of Mexico, which regards them as injurious to the interests of that country.

Washington News

NEW YORK Feb 28 —The President has sent to the Senate for confirmation the following California appointments: Lieut.-Colonel, by brevet, R. W. Kirkham; Deputy Quartermaster G. B. Fox, Brevet Lieut. Col. T. J. Tibbett Department Paymaster General C. J. Sprague.

The Supreme Court in the case of Townsend vs. Greely has decided that the pueblo lands are not subject to sale on execution as they are held in trust by the pueblo for the benefit of the inhabitants. The decision of other cases involving the Peter Smith title will be similar.

The Secretary of the Interior has forwarded an opinion of the Commissioner of the Land Office relative to the rights of the Central Branch of the Union Pacific Railroad to increased subsidies. The bill referred to in the opinion amounts to three and a half million acres.

Washington, says that should the reconstruction bill become a law, Governor Wells will immediately order an election for Delegates and the State would soon be placed in a position to be represented in Congress.

The monthly statement of the public debt will probably show no diminution since January. During that month the interest amounted to $30,000,000 ... 30 which absorbed all the surplus.

The Herald's special dispatch says the President will probably make a clean sweep of the Cabinet, excepting the Attorney General. It is said that Judge ... will be Secretary of State and ... a rebel General will be a member of the Cabinet.

It is believed the President would sign the reconstruction bill, but for the influence of Seward and McCulloch with the President is controlled by his Cabinet, with the aid of two outsiders.

The case of the Insurance Co. vs Soule in the Supreme Court involving the constitutionality of the law directing the ... Internal Revenue in California to reduce ... to greenbacks was dismissed. It was held that ... and ... the Federal Courts ... should have been brought in the first instance in the State Courts and then on application of the Collector or other officers ... might have been transferred to the Federal Court. The law of 1864 will not apply to the case as it did not ... California till the suit had been decided there.

The Senate Republican caucus nominated B. F. Wade for President pro tem by acclamation.

Two circulars have been distributed in Washington, one having in view an armed expedition to develop the mineral resources of Sonora and the other signed by Gen. R. Clay Crawford proposing to organize a liberating army for Mexico. The Mexican Government regards them as injurious to the interests of the country.

The War Department proposes another roll of honor. It contains 14,000 names of those who fought in defense of the Union. Oregon is among the States represented.

NEW YORK March 1 —The Times special dispatch says the private cause of Sumner's attack on McCulloch yesterday was the removal of his brother-in-law, Hastings, Surgeon of the Marine Hospital at San Francisco. Complaints had been made against him and McCulloch removed him for cause.

Nearly all the members of the Fortieth Congress are at Washington. Including about forty five new members of the House.

We learn from a reliable source that the Senators from Colorado are before the Judiciary Committee for the purpose of testifying that the President made improper overtures to them while the bill was pending for the admission of Colorado.

NEW YORK Feb 28 —The Tribune's special dispatch says the Committee of Conference on the bill for reimbursing fraudulent contractors have agreed upon the House Amendment, which sends the whole matter to the Secretary of the Navy thus virtually ending all hope of relief for the contractors. It is the opinion of some that the President will withhold the veto message on the Reconstruction bill for the purpose of giving the Democrats time to filibuster and to kill the bill. CHICAGO, March 2 —A Washington special says the bankrupt bill came from the Conference Committee after 10 o'clock last evening. They agree substantially to the bill as passed in the Senate, except that the miscellaneous provision in the fifth section struck out in the Senate, is now retained. When the report had been explained, the opponents of the bill moved to table the whole question. There was much excitement during roll call. Motion lost—ayes 71 noes 84. After further filibustering, the report was agreed to—ayes 73, noes 7.

House last evening relieved the Speaker's table of a large number of bills. It also non concurred in Senate amendments to the tax bill asking for a Committee of Conference.

The House tabled the bill granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from San Francisco to Humboldt Bay.

In the Senate the Colorado question was effectually settled yesterday by the refusal of the Senate, without debate, to pass the bill over the veto—yeas 29, noes 19, the affirmative vote being three less than two-thirds. The Republicans voting in the negative were Edmunds, Foster, Fessenden, Grimes, Harris and Morgan. Sumner sat in his seat but declined to vote. The Senators elect from Colorado have been very earnest and diligent in pressing the bill and are much chagrined at its defeat.

A very spirited debate took place in the House on the question of an appropriation of $55,000 for completing the repair and furnishing the Executive Mansion. All old and long exploded scandals about Lincoln were brought up and turned over, and the present hostility of various gentleman to Johnson was exhibited without much attempt at concealment. The proposition was finally agreed to by yeas 81, noes 73.

The Senate has passed the tax bill. The most important amendment adopted was the reduction of the cotton tax from 3 to 2 cents, which, according to Mr Fessenden, will reduce the revenue $4,000,000. The action of the Senate on this subject was curious. The amendment offered by Mr Henderson to abolish the cotton tax altogether was only defeated by a tie vote, which was as follows: Yeas—Anthony, Buckalew, Davies, Dixon, Doolittle, Foote, Fowler, Henderson, Hendricks, Patterson Johnson, Nesmith, Riddle, Saulsbury, Sherman, Sprague, Van Winkle, Willey and Williams—19. Nays—Cattle, Conness, Creswell, Edmunds, Fessenden, Grimes, Harris, Kirkwood, Morgan, Nye, Pomeroy, Ramsay, Ross, Stewart, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson and Yates—19.

A number of votes were taken one of which was in favor of a one cent tax, which was defeated by 24 to 18, but finally two cents was agreed upon, the reduction to date from the 1st of September. Leather was stricken from the free list and an amendment adopted authorizing gas companies to add the tax to the existing contracts. The existing law authorize them to do so until the 1st of April. The 1st of April was struck out. This reverses the old quarrel between the two Houses. Garrett Davis renewed his motion for the adoption of the amendment which was voted down in the afternoon, fixing the tax on whisky at two dollars per gallon, after the 1st of October, one dollar and fifty cents shall be the tax until the 1st of April, 1860, and one dollar thereafter. This was debated by Trumbull, Davis, Hendricks, and others, in favor, and Fessenden against it. It was voted down by ayes, 14 nays 23.

The Senate confirmed the appointments of Albert Zieber as Marshal of Oregon and J W Rush District Attorney in Arizona.

The World's dispatch says Greeley had a long interview with the President and urged him to sign the reconstruction bill. He told the President he thought there should be an entire change in the Cabinet.

In the House yesterday, the Senate bill was brought up to grant land to certain railroads in California. Mr Bidwell deprecated the efforts of New York capitalists to defeat the bill.

Mr Julian Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture, found the bill an extraordinary one and felt obliged to report against it. Mr Ross inquired into it. He said the interest of California would be subserved by holding waste lands for actual settlement, than giving it away to Railroads. After further discussion, Mr Conkling moved to table it, which was done.

The Senate has passed the House bill fixing the tariff on wool and woolen goods.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2 —Geo. Pfaaf, a German musician, aged about 40 years, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his head with a hatchet. His groans attracted people to his room, where the wounded man was found lying on the floor, his head terribly cut, and weltering in his own blood. He was still able to talk and stated that he commenced his bloody work on Monday night, that he would strike himself on the head with the hatchet, and then await death, when finding that his blows were not fatal, he would raise the hatchet high above his head and bring it down upon his skull with all his might. The wounded man was suffering terribly when found, and the chances for his recovery are doubtful.

Educating the Democratic Mind

In these days there is scarcely anything so distressing to the Democratic mind as the numerous "Abolition Histories" which come teeming from the Northern press Every Democratic editor joins in the hue and cry against them If an opponent quotes history from any other than a Confederate source it immediately causes a prodigious overflow of Democratic bile and calls down upon the historian who is cited as authority, a torrent of wrathful invective It is gratifying to observe that there are histories of our country within popular reach which can be safely recommended to Democratic readers The Review, of Salem, has discovered such a book With solemn earnestness it warns its patrons "against procuring the trashy villainous emanations of the Yankee press, called Histories of the War" and appeals to them to buy "Pollard's Lost Cause" if they would have a work entirely reliable If they would preserve their Democratic principles in a state of purity they should resolutely refuse to read any history which is written from a national standpoint, and consult the pages of Confederate writers only If they read Greeley or Headley, it is not their dead ly peril if they read Pollard they are entirely safe

But safe as Pollard is as an instructor of the Democratic mind, his statements do not always agree with those of the Democratic newspaper press He indulges in no nonsense about the love of the Confederates for the Union, and their extreme reluctance to dividing it He tells no moving, melting stories of how they lingered and hoped and waited before taking up arms—desiring to believe that some way would still be found whereby they could remain in the Union they loved. No pathetic tales of this kind fall from his pen He shows that the South seceded in conformity with a resolution fixed long before, nor does he mention that any tears were shed at the thought of separation He was not at all sorry to go In all this he differs very widely from the Democratic newspaper press This class of writers would make it appear that the South did not want to secede, but that she was driven out by Northern fanaticism Fine stories are told to this day about her patient forbearance, and her extreme reluctance to take this step But the North would make no concessions, and the South, with bitter tears, was compelled to go Pollard views matters in quite another light The first volume he wrote on the war opens with an argument to prove that the perpetuity of the Union was never designed by its founders Therefore he does not deal in that poor sentimentality about the love of the South for the Union, which constitutes the basis of so many Democratic editorials

Though the Review so greatly admires Pollard's history, it occurs to us that that work might in some parts, be considerably improved It allows that the Union armies gained a few minor advantages during the war, as at Vicksburg and Richmond, but the chivalry, according to Pollard were, in nearly every other instance, completely victorious. Now, our Democrats ought to have a history which would concede nothing at all to Yankee valor. It is too much for any historian to make the humiliating confession that the chivalry was conquered. In this respect Pollard is very faulty. These parts of his book Democrats ought to read with caution Happily such faults as these are extremely rare in the work which the Review so warmly recommends.

But Pollard's book is the best exposition of Democratic principles that has yet appeared It is therefore very natural that the organs of that party should recommend it to their friends.

SUFFERING IN NEW YORK.—The New York correspondent of the Sacramento Union states that there is a vast amount of suffering in the metropolis at the present time. We give an extract from the letter

Here we have no wheat or flour to spare, and we expect to hear as the result of the recent intelligence from London of one of those operations among moneyed men and speculators for which New York is famous, and by which prices will be advanced to the verge of starvation And this is the view in which the subject becomes serious to us. Our city is already moved as it never was before, by the daily increasing distress and destitution among the poor All accounts agree that there never was so much want, and unusual efforts are being made and extraordinary plans projected for the relief of the needy, especially among the women. A rise in breadstuffs would seriously augment our troubles, and such a rise is predicted.

From the state of affairs at the East, it is to be feared that worse than this is still to come! Factories are rapidly closing, employes are losing their places, and necessaries of life are enormously high "Hard times" is the general rule in all the Eastern and Mississippi Valley States

A STRANGE STYLE OF DOING BUSINESS.—We learn from the Saturday Review that there has sprung up in Paris a company whose object is rather novel. It is called the Magasins Reunis, and is erecting enormous edifices for the sale of goods on a new principle This principle is simple enough. "Buy, and your money will be returned" Your expenses of to-day will become your fortune in the future But how, in the name of wonder? Well, you purchase something for five pounds, paying cash for it, and you receive an "obligation warrant" from the company promising to repay you five pounds at some future date —possibly to morrow, but certainly within fifty nine years: The theory of course is that an article sold for five pounds will cost the company about three and that the two pounds gained will fructify so as to meet the obligation warrant some time or other.

The politicians who hoped so much from the Philadelphia Johnson Convention, have not yet been entirely cured of their folly The New York Times intimates that Secretary Seward may be the Republican candidate for the Presidency in 1868, because, by reason of the late decisions of the Supreme Court, that party may be compelled to take a "Conservative" as its candidate! The managers of the Philadelphia Convention are known to be very wise persons, and this opinion from their principal organ is eminently worthy of them

The Walla Walla Statesman learns that about fifty men have wintered in the Palouse mines, and have taken out from $4 to $6 per day to the hand Considering that the mines are so near a market these figures will always pay

John Mitchell is now editor of the Richmond Dispatch This accounts for the vast amount of talk about "our honor" which fills the columns of that paper

The Lewiston Journal says that it is rumored that John Clark of that place, has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue in Northern Idaho

The Bulletin's Washington letter says

Mr Johnson has sent to the Senate the names of some 450 of his civil appointees of which that body have acted upon quite a number recently They have rejected the nominations of whole batches particularly the Assessors and Collectors of Revenue It is noticeable, that while they resolutely reject all Conservative Republican they do occasionally confirm an out and out Democrat a few of whom were appointed just before the fall elections Thus, in the case of the Philadelphia appointments they rejected ex Gov William F Johnston for Collector of the Port Flanigan, Naval Officer, ex Marshal Millward, Director of the Mint all of whom were Johnson Republicans, while they confirmed Chambers McKibben as U S Treasurer of the Mint, who always was and is now an active energetic and out spoken Democrat, and never professed to be anything else.

EDITOR OREGONIAN

It has now been so long since we have seen a copy of your paper here that we feel almost assured that you have forgotten us or died out altogether Not having seen your paper containing news from the East as late as the commencement of Congress, I cannot judge what would be likely to be news to your readers and what you obtain by telegraph I am very sensitive on this point because I am generally too indolent—or more properly, too actively engaged in some political or speculative scheme to come down to the drudgery of news writing The first item that I have on my list is a chivalrous phenomenon that occurred at Willard's Hotel the other day It was not only chivalrous but also tragical—as most chivalrous phenomena are It occurred in this wise one Henry Cummins, of Idaho, formerly from your State, has been making war on all appointments obtained by Holbrook—the Delegate for Idaho—for his Territory, and particularly opposed the appointment of one John M Murphy to be Governor of that Territory and as certain items had been published in nearly all the eastern papers reflecting severely on said Murphy—it was natural that they should be attributed to said Cummins, and perhaps justly And while said Cummins was reading one of these items to a crowd in Willard's Holbrook came along and overheard it, whereupon the following scene occurred as described in the National Republican the next morning—and what makes this item the more rich is the fact that it is a Johnson paper [We omit the item as it has already been published in this paper —ED OREGONIAN]

The item is incorrect in that it asserts that the parties had a controversy Cummins made these assertions to a crowd of Idahoans and strangers while sitting down while Holbrook was eaves dropping just inside a door, and came suddenly out and assaulted Cummins while he was sitting and did not knock him down, though he (Holbrook) struck Cummins five or six blows on the head with a heavy cane, and had it not been for the crowd separating them Holbrook would have come out at the little end of the horn The result is that Holbrook is universally condemned and the chances for the success of his candidate—if he ever had any—are completely obliterated Murphy, seeing his fate, came the next day to Cummins and apologized, and desired Cummins to give him a certificate of good character, etc which was indignantly refused Cummins recently drew up a Registry Law for the Territories of the United States which was introduced in the Senate by Williams on the 22d inst., and referred to the Committee on Territories, and was reported back to the Senate on the 24th by the Committee, with a recommendation that it pass It is a very stringent law and will have a very material effect on the elections in the Territories since it will exclude rebels from voting as well as non residents and it will also prevent double voting—a favorite method with the Democracy in the Territories It also requires electors to take and subscribe a strong ironclad oath I accompany this letter with a copy of the bill Cummins also had a bill introduced by Senator Williams, amending the Organic Act of Idaho, giving the Judges of the Supreme Court authority to determine their own districts, assign themselves to these and fix their own times of holding court, also making the sessions of the Idaho legislature biennial instead of annual

Williams is hard at work in the Finance Committee aiding in the perfection of the Tariff Bill and other important matters

Mr Henderson has been confined to his bed for more than a week past with illness It is feared that he will lose the sight of one of his eyes—caused partly by an accident

Senator Corbett is also here on business—and will remain about a week He came down from New York about three weeks since and remained a few days He makes a very favorable impression among all classes of men here He will not only be a thoroughly practical and industrious Senator, but possesses decided political opinions and convictions Oregon will have reason to be proud of her choice Ex Senator Stark is in the city He is supposed to be here to look after the interest the people of New London, Conn, have in the establishment of the Navy Yard at that place

B F. Dowell, Esq, of Jacksonville, is also here trying to get some claims through the departments —mostly for dead horses and mules I believe. The Treasury Department not being inclined to allow these claims, he has written a long opinion and submitted it to John Wilson, Third Auditor

Prof Marsh, of Forest Grove, is here trying to raise funds to further endow the Pacific University He also takes an active part in the Pacific R R matter, particularly the northern route

Philip Ritz of Idaho—formerly of Oregon and Washington Territory (suit growing notoriety—lately arrived, for the purpose of getting an appropriation of $50,000 to re open the Mullan road over the Bitter Root Mountains This is a worthy object, but he will be very likely to fail in his undertaking, because most of the members of Congress are opposed to such appropriations

Harry Failing is also in this city He came down with Corbett also, Jones, Gov Gibbs' partner, and a large number from Idaho, among them Douthitt, Judge Gray, J C Henley, and others

As to the confirmations of appointment, made by the President, the Senate has laid down this invariable rule Where appointments were made by removing good officers for political reasons, they will be rejected Hence the large number of nominations rejected a few days since All nominations of Revenue officers for the States of Minnesota, Iowa, and the Pacific States and Territories, are referred to Senator Williams, and those whom he recommends to be confirmed are confirmed and those whom he recommends to be rejected are rejected In Idaho, Austin Savage will be confirmed as Assessor, while Geo W Thatcher will be rejected for Collector Humason's nomination will be rejected, as there has been a change of programme in his case Colo, newly appointed Governor of Washington Territory, and Murphy, newly nominated Governor of Idaho, will be rejected And the bill regulating tenure of office will put an effectual stop to all further removals, unless with the consent of the Senate

Mr Johnson, of the Cascades, Oregon, is here and the portage case of his son will soon be tried in the Court of Claims Gen B F Butler will make the argument on behalf the Johnsons He is expected here next Tuesday the 29th inst

The National Academy of Science is now holding very important sessions in the room of the Senate Committee of Commerce The principal scientific men of the country are present

Woolen Factory in Jackson County.

A few days ago we published an item relative to this new enterprise The following more specific account we obtain from the Southern Oregon Press

The long talked of, much agitated subject of establishing a woolen factory in Jackson county seems at last to have assumed a tangible shape and our citizens can congratulate themselves that ere long the busy hum of looms and the apparatus necessary to the manufacture of woolen goods will make music to our ears, and bring a jingle even to our pockets

Through the energy and perseverance of some warm friends of the movement arrangements have been completed to proceed forthwith with the business Articles of incorporation have been filed and agents of the enterprise will visit our citizens for subscriptions to the capital stock, which is placed at $30,000 in 300 shares of $100 each Below are the articles of incorporation

That we, the undersigned have associated ourselves together as a body corporate pursuant to the Act of the Legislature of the State of Oregon entitled "An Act providing for private incorporations"

And we certify—

1st That the said incorporation assumes and shall be known by the name of the Rogue River Valley Woolen Manufacturing Company and the duration of said Company shall be fifty years

2d That the said corporation proposes to engage in the business of erecting a factory building or buildings, and manufacturing woolen goods of various descriptions, at or near Ashland, Jackson county, Oregon

3d That the said corporation proposes to have its principal office or place of business in the town of Ashland, county of Jackson and State of Oregon

4th That the amount of capital stock of the said Company is Thirty Thousand Dollars

5th, That the amount of each share of such capital stock is one hundred dollars

THE 'GREEK' OR FENIAN FIRE —It is a solution of phosphorus in bisulphide of carbon The peculiar properties of the former are well known while those of the latter as being a comparatively recent chemical preparation are not generally understood The bisulphide of carbon is a highly inflammable liquid colorless and almost transparent, giving off fumes of sulphurous acid when burnt It volatilizes very rapidly at ordinary temperature, and when its vapor is mixed with air and a light applied it inflames with a slight explosion Its vapor is poisonous —Lancet

THE CANARY BIRD TRADE.—There are large importations of canary birds into New York on the German steamers The birds come principally from the Hartz mountains in Hanover The number of them that arrived in the past year is estimated by large importers at from 15 000 to 20,000, worth $60,000 or $80,000 The mortality among the birds on the passage is more than twenty five per cent In this country they are bred to some extent One man, in Philadelphia, last year, raised three hundred, and another, in Buffalo, one hundred and fifty Several persons in New York, New Jersey, etc, raise smaller numbers

FAILED TO AGREE —The jury in the late murder case failed to agree and consequently were discharged, but the verdict of all who purchase goods at KOHN & FISHEL'S clothing store, No 111 Front street, is arrived at with the utmost unanimity which is that they invariably get the best articles for the least money

REFINING WORKS.

No. 416 Montgomery Street,

(Successors to Kellogg, Hewston & Company)

CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000!

Directors:

JOHN PARROTT
WM C RALSTON
LOUIS A CARNETT
CHAS E McLANE,
A HAYWARD,

LOUIS A CARNETT .... President and Manager
JOHN HEWSTON Jr Chemist and Superintendent

THIS COMPANY HAVING GREATLY enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business

THE TARIFF OF CHARGES

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the point of and commercial value of bullion

Their charges hereafter will be as follows

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED GOLD BARS

One eighth of one per cent (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1 600, and two dollars for any smaller sum Returns made in twenty four hours

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED SILVER BARS

Two dollars for the gold contained up to $1 600, and one eighth of one per cent, for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours

FOR REFINING DEPOSITS MADE FOR COIN OR FINE BARS

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce
On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce

Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

FOR COINING GOLD

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—one half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

RETURNS IN COIN IN FORTY EIGHT HOURS

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint

Gold bars of other Assayers, in good standing will be cashed at the highest market rates

Unst and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells Fargo & Co's Express

CHARGES AT U S BRANCH MINT

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that institution

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce
For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce
For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold 7 cents per ounce
For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce
For refining bullion from 830½@949½ parts gold 14 cents per ounce

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent, and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage

880 par to equal Mint return at refining charge of 14 cents
840 par to equal Mint return at refining charge of 14 cents
800 par to equal San Francisco A & R. Works return at refining charge of 8 cents

GAS FROM OIL LAMPS —Not every person is aware that oil lamps rapidly generate under certain conditions a poisonous gas, destructive to health and sometimes to life in very close rooms We find in a medical exchange the following remarks which cut bear with at least one warning and advice: "The practice of burning room oil lamps in bedrooms is very pernicious and dangerous The gas generated by the lamp is of a poisonous nature, and is exceedingly detrimental to health, affecting the lungs very seriously If the lamp is allowed to burn as when in common use, the gas is partly all consumed in the chimney; but when the wick is turned down so as to give but a dim light in the room the gas generated is not consumed but escapes into the room If the windows and doors of the apartment are tightly closed as is generally the case in the winter season, the occupants cannot escape the injurious effects A day or two ago the death of a young lady was recorded in a Chicago county from the effects of inhaling the poisonous gas from the oil lamp which she kept burning in her bedroom every night If it is necessary to keep a light burning, let the wick be kept fully up, and if there is no transom over the door then by all means let one of the windows down an inch or more from the top The practice of retiring to bed in a close room with an oil lamp dimly burning is most dangerous, and the effect upon the respiratory organs will be seriously felt, sooner or later Delicate persons cannot continue the practice long without experiencing the most serious results The importance of proper ventilation is not fully understood and appreciated by the masses, and much suffering is entailed upon humanity by breathing a foul and poisonous atmosphere especially in sleeping apartments The health of children is frequently ruined—their constitutions broken down—by compelling them to sleep in illy ventilated rooms and the fear of taking cold the great bugbear among timid parents has cost many a child its life A fire place (grate) with a fire is a good ventilator but nothing is equal to the pulling down of the upper sash which allows the foul and poisonous air to escape—and no room is so close that enough fresh air cannot find its way in through cracks and openings about the joints of doors and windows to supply the place of the escaping vitiated atmosphere.

THE COLUMBIA RIVER ROUTE TO IDAHO.—The Lewiston Journal, speaking of the Columbia river and the Chico roads as rival routes to Idaho after saying that at the outset the practicability of either route will be definitely determined by test and experience concludes with the following suggestion which may be worth heeding "We trust in view of that fact that the people of Oregon will use their influence to secure an improvement of the route in the success of which they are so much interested and that they will urge upon the Navigation Company whose members are mostly citizens of that State a reduction of the price upon freight and passage. It seems to us that this would be the more effectual way of preventing damage to the inhabitants of these cities This would not only operate to destroy the threatened rivalry but would induce immigration cheapen our living and tend to the further development of our mining interest. Upon the growth of this Territory [Idaho] depends to a great extent, the advancement of Oregon and high freights and passage retard in a great measure, our prosperity—"a word to the wise is sufficient" We make no pretense of knowing whether the O S N Co can materially reduce the prices for freight and passage without loss, but we do know that Oregon is deeply interested in securing the trade and travel of the interior territories via the Columbia river; and we may suppose that the O. S. N Co. has about as much interest in that matter as anybody There can be no doubt upon another point that California travelers to Idaho will go whichever way costs the least time and money If the Chico route offers the shortest trip and the least expense, travelers will go that way It then becomes a matter of policy for the Navigation Company to put their charges at the lowest living rates so that the Chico road may not underbid them. In view of the facts that the O S. N Co absolutely control the question of prices on the Columbia route, and that Portland together with all Eastern Oregon has a deep interest at stake, we trust that public discussion of these matters will not be deemed officious in interests with private business

AT LAST [illegible] STEAMER —Capt Wolf of the Cascades yesterday in getting his steamer's whistle to go. It was a magnificent success For more than half an hour before the arrival of the Cascades everybody's attention was attracted by a prolonged and distant whistling down the river, and no little excitement was created when it was ascertained that it proceeded from the Cascades, then several miles down the river The whistle is blow, speculation as to the cause of it began to take more shapes than we should like to rate On came the steamer the whistle for an instant until she was made fast to the wharf Then it came out, much to the relief of the crowd congregated on the wharf that they have had been opened by the Captain at last, and that, on its own responsibility it had refused to "shut up" again It was the longest blow out on record.

SHATTUCK, JUDGE.—In the Circuit Court, 4th, the following proceedings were had.
[illegible] vs. Chas Cottrell, indicted for larceny of jury guilty as charged in the indictment sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for the term of thirty days, and to pay the costs of action.
State of Oregon vs. John Williams; indicted for setting up a gaming device, motion for a new trial overruled and sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for the term of three months, execution of sentence stayed till the decision of the case by the Supreme Court can be had, upon defendant's filing a bond of $100
State of Oregon vs John Dougherty, indicted for permitting a gaming device to be set up on his premises jury returned a verdict, guilty as charged in the indictment.

F W. O. D. DRILL.—Multnomah Engine Co No 2 is called to this evening for "F W O D Drill" practice. Not long since one of the companies had a "K. C. Drill" We made out that "K. C." meant Keg Clear All but what shall we say of "F W O D"? Fat Whisky—no, we won't slander the Multnomahs by suspecting of anything stronger than lager Suppose it means, Fresh Water Oysters—pshaw that won't do. One—a Family Worship—we never heard of such a thing in a fire company We give it up

[illegible] COURT.—Yesterday morning the 4th, the following cases were before the Recorder
John F [illegible], charged with making threats to an assault [illegible] K. Dorkheimer, defendant required to pay costs and give bonds in the sum of $200 to keep the peace.
[illegible] charged with depositing the offal of [illegible] animals in a yard near Alder street, tried and taken under consideration.

A [illegible] MAIL COACH —Messrs W. E. Cooper & Co of this city have made and shipped a coach for the use of the Pioneer Stage Company of Eastern Oregon and Idaho. We understand that it was made to order light and low so as to suit the mountainous country over which it is to run. The Concord coaches are too high and too heavy for the road, hence this order for an Oregon made coach. It is probably in no way inferior to the Concord coaches, either as to material or workmanship.

TREASURE [illegible] —The following are the sums of treasure shipped per steamer Continental, March 3d

Wells, Fargo & Co	$47,000
Ladd	10,000
...	5,000
...	1,500
	$63,500

THE TANNER TROUPE.—A very fair house greeted the troupe last evening of Mr T W Tanner who had his benefit. Miss quite ill "Nellie Cardinell," a new song by Miss Soledad, was heartily encored We like the of the piece better than anything we have heard. The usual variety of attractions will be given to-night.

[illegible] AGAINST ACCIDENTS.—"The Cincinnati [illegible] two instances, in one of which a man's [illegible] because he was drunk, and in the other because he was sober What's the moral?" That's a very enough. To provide against the first class of accidents, get drunk and keep so, to provide against the latter, keep sober.

A GORILLA LOOSE.—A sensation story is told in the Idaho papers about a gorilla that has been seen somewhere in the Boise river. He was lassoed once or twice, but succeeded in breaking his bonds, and at last accounts was still at large. The Idahoans are pretty good on sensation stories, but the Klamath Lake boys are still ahead.

ADJOURNED.—The U S. District Court for the District of Oregon was yesterday morning adjourned by the U. S. Marshal, under instructions from Judge Deady to Monday, May 6th The continued absence of Judge Deady who is holding a term of the U S Circuit Court at San Francisco, is the cause of this adjournment

WILLAMETTE PRODUCE.—Arrived per steamer Alert March 4th: 75 bdles paper, 487 boxes apples, 42 sks dried apples, 5 hides, 38 boxes eggs 1 calf, 1 bale woolen goods, 150 sks wheat, 14 hf bbls tallow 67 sks bacon 520 qr sks flour, 1 hf bbl sugar, 31 hf bbl produce 25 sks bran 147 sks feed.

CALICO BALL.—We learn from outside parties that the Turn Verein Society of Portland will give a 'Calico Ball' at their hall, on the evening of Friday the 22d inst — Messrs. F Oetheim, D L. Walter and N. A. Hirstel constitute the committee of arrangements.

COUNTY COURT —The County Court Judge Marquam presiding, opened the March term yesterday morning but beyond the filing of a few motions no important business was transacted The court at an early hour adjourned till this morning

DAILY MAILS —The Walla Walla Statesman congratulates the people of that town and valley that they now have daily mail connection with Portland as well as Salt Lake. The new arrangement went into operation on the 1st instant.

FAST DRIVING —The owners of fast horses were improving the splendid weather of yesterday by trotting out their nags for airing and exercise They made First street pretty lively during a part of the afternoon

TREASURE RECEIPTS.—By the Cascades yesterday Wells, Fargo & Co. received about $15,000 in treasure from the upper country

THE SCHOONER CROSBY —A private letter from Victoria gives intelligence that the Crosby arrived at Neah Bay on the 24th of February

BRANCHING OUT.—Rasmus Bros. will receive a heavy stock of clothing and furnishing goods by the Ajax and will immediately open a branch house at the old place of business on the river side of Front street, between Washington and Stark, under the superintendence of Mr A. [illegible], acting as their agent.

THE AJAX —This steamer may be looked for on Wednesday and is advertised this morning to leave again on or about Friday the 8th

Don't fail to procure Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething It has been used for thirty years with never failing safety and success by millions of mothers for their children It corrects acidity of the stomach relieves wind colic regulates the bowels and gives rest health and comfort to mother and child. 35 cts. Sold by all Druggists. Office No 48 Dey street New York and No 205 High Holborn London England. Hodge, Calef & Co., Agents for Smith & Davis Agents for the Pacific coast

HOW TO SAVE MONEY —We know of no better way to save money than to use the great [illegible] and thus make them practically as good as new This can be done by using the celebrated FAMILY DYE COLORS of Howe & Stevens which are equal to the best French at a fourth the cost, as cheap and convenient. Sold by Smith & Davis

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 5, 1867.

Educating the Democratic Mind.

In these days there is scarcely anything so distressing to the Democratic mind as the numerous "Abolition Histories" which come teeming from the Northern press. Every Democratic editor joins in the hue and cry against them. If an opponent quotes history from any other than a Confederate source, it immediately causes a prodigious overflow of Democratic bile, and calls down upon the historian who is cited as authority, a torrent of wrathful invective. It is gratifying to observe that there are histories of our country within popular reach which can be safely recommended to Democratic readers. The Review, of Salem, has discovered such a book. With solemn earnestness it warns its patrons "against procuring the trashy, villainous emanations of the Yankee press, called Histories of the War," and appeals to them to buy "Pollard's Lost Cause" if they would have a work entirely reliable. If they would preserve their Democratic principles in a state of purity they should resolutely refuse to read any history which is written from a national standpoint, and consult the pages of Confederate writers only. If they read Greeley or Headley, it is at their deadly peril; if they read Pollard they are entirely safe.

But safe as Pollard is as an instructor of the Democratic mind, his statements do not always agree with those of the Democratic newspaper press. He indulges in no nonsense about the love of the Confederates for the Union, and their extreme reluctance to dividing it. He tells no moving, melting stories of how they lingered and hoped and waited before taking up arms—desiring to believe that some way would still be found whereby they could remain in the Union they loved. No pathetic tales of this kind fall from his pen. He shows that the South seceded in conformity with a resolution fixed long before; nor does he mention that any tears were shed at the thought of separation. He was not at all sorry to go. In all this he differs very widely from the Democratic newspaper press. This class of writers would make it appear that the South did not want to secede, but that she was driven out by Northern fanaticism. Fine stories are told to this day about her patient forbearance, and her extreme reluctance to take this step. But the North would make no concessions, and the South, with bitter tears, was compelled to go. Pollard views matters in quite another light. The first volume he wrote on the war opens with an argument to prove that the perpetuity of the Union was never designed by its founders. Therefore he does not deal in that poor sentimentality about the love of the South for the Union, which constitutes the basis of so many Democratic editorials.

Though the Review so greatly admires Pollard's history, it occurs to us that that work might in some parts, be considerably improved. It allows that the Union armies gained a few minor advantages during the war, as at Vicksburg and Richmond; but the chivalry, according to Pollard, were, in nearly every other instance, completely victorious. Now, our Democrats ought to have a history which would concede nothing at all to Yankee valor. It is too much for any historian to make the humiliating confession that the chivalry was conquered. In this respect Pollard is very faulty. These parts of his book Democrats ought to read with caution. Happily such faults as these are extremely rare in the work which the Review so warmly recommends.

But Pollard's book is the best exposition of Democratic principles that has yet appeared. It is therefore very natural that the organs of that party should recommend it to their friends.

SUFFERING IN NEW YORK.—The New York correspondent of the Sacramento Union states that there is a vast amount of suffering in the metropolis at the present time. We give an extract from the letter:

Here we have no wheat or flour to spare, and we expect to hear as the result of the recent intelligence from London of one of those operations among moneyed men and speculators for which New York is famous, and by which prices will be advanced to the verge of starvation. And this is the view in which the subject becomes serious to us. Our city is already moved as it never was before, by the daily increasing distress and destitution among the poor. All accounts agree that there never was so much want, and unusual efforts are being made and extraordinary plans projected for the relief of the needy, especially among the women. A rise in breadstuffs would seriously augment our troubles, and such a rise is predicted.

From the state of affairs at the East, it is to be feared that worse than this is still to come. Factories are rapidly closing, employes are losing their places, and necessaries of life are enormously high. "Hard times" is the general rule in all the Eastern and Mississippi Valley States.

A STRANGE STYLE OF DOING BUSINESS.—We learn from the Saturday Review that there has sprung up in Paris a company whose object is rather novel. It is called the Magasins Reunis, and is erecting enormous edifices for the sale of goods on a new principle. This principle is simple enough. "Buy, and your money will be returned." Your expenses of to-day will become your fortune in the future. But how, in the name of wonder? Well, you purchase something for five pounds, paying cash for it, and you receive an "obligation-warrant" from the company promising to repay you five pounds at some future date —possibly to-morrow, but certainly within fifty-nine years. The theory of course is that an article sold for five pounds will cost the company about three, and that the two pounds gained will fructify so as to meet the obligation-warrant sometime or other.

The politicians who hoped so much from the Philadelphia Johnson Convention, have not yet been entirely cured of their folly. The New York Times intimates that Secretary Seward may be the Republican candidate for the Presidency in 1868, because, by reason of the late decisions of the Supreme Court, that party may be compelled to take a "Conservative" as its candidate! The managers of the Philadelphia Convention are known to be very wise persons, and this opinion from their principal organ is eminently worthy of them.

The Walla Walla Statesman learns that about fifty men have wintered in the Palouse mines, and have taken out from $4 to $6 per day to the hand. Considering that the mines are so near a market, these figures will always pay.

John Mitchell is now editor of the Richmond Dispatch. This accounts for the vast amount of talk about "our honor" which fills the columns of that paper.

The Lewiston Journal says that it is rumored that John Clark, of that place, has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue in Northern Idaho.

The Bulletin's Washington letter says:

Mr. Johnson has sent to the Senate the names of some 450 of his civil appointees, of which that body have acted upon quite a number recently. They have rejected the nominations of whole batches, particularly the Assessors and Collectors of Revenue. It is noticeable, that while they resolutely reject all Conservative Republicans, they do occasionally confirm an out-and-out Democrat, a few of whom were appointed just before the fall elections. Thus, in the case of the Philadelphia appointments, they rejected ex-Gov. William F. Johnston for Collector of the Port; Flanigan, Naval Officer; ex-Marshal Millwood, Director of the Mint, all of whom were Johnson Republicans, while they confirmed Chambers McKibben as U. S. Treasurer of the Mint, who always was and is now an active, energetic and outspoken Democrat, and never professed to be anything else.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25, 1867.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

It has now been so long since we have seen a copy of your paper here that we feel almost assured that you have forgotten us or died out altogether. Not having seen your paper containing news from the East as late as the commencement of Congress, I cannot judge what would be likely to be news to your readers and what you obtain by telegraph. I am very sensitive on this point, because I am generally too indolent—or more properly, too actively engaged in some political or speculative scheme to come down to the drudgery of news-writing. The first item that I have on my list is a chivalrous phenomenon that occurred at Willard's Hotel the other day. It was not only chivalrous, but also tragical—as most chivalrous phenomena are. It occurred in this wise: one Henry Cummins, of Idaho, formerly from your State, has been making war on all appointments obtained by Holbrook—the Delegate for Idaho—for his Territory, and particularly opposed the appointment of one John M. Murphy, to be Governor of that Territory, and as certain items had been published in nearly all the eastern papers reflecting severely on said Murphy—it was natural that they should be attributed to said Cummins; and perhaps justly. And while said Cummins was reading one of these items to a crowd in Willard's, Holbrook came along and overheard it; whereupon the following scene occurred, as described in the National Republican the next morning—and what makes this item the more rich is the fact that it is a Johnson paper: [We omit the item as it has already been published in this paper.—ED. OREGONIAN.]

The item is incorrect in that it asserts that the parties had a controversy. Cummins made those assertions to a crowd of Idahoans and strangers, while sitting down, while Holbrook was eavesdropping just inside a door, and came suddenly out and assaulted Cummins while he was sitting, and did not knock him down, though he (Holbrook) struck Cummins five or six blows on the head with a heavy cane, and had it not been for the crowd separating them Holbrook would have come out at the little end of the horn. The result is that Holbrook is universally condemned and the chances for the success of his candidate—if he ever had any—are completely obliterated. Murphy, seeing his fate, came the next day to Cummins and apologized, and desired Cummins to give him a certificate of good character, etc., which was indignantly refused. Cummins recently drew up a Registry Law for the Territories of the United States which was introduced in the Senate by Williams on the 22d inst., and referred to the Committee on Territories, and was reported back to the Senate on the 24th by the Committee, with a recommendation that it pass. It is a very stringent law and will have a very material effect on the elections in the Territories, since it will exclude rebels from voting as well as non-residents, and it will also prevent double voting—a favorite method with the Democracy in the Territories. It also requires electors to take and subscribe a strong ironclad oath. I accompany this letter with a copy of the bill. Cummins also had a bill introduced by Senator Williams, amending the Organic Act of Idaho, giving the Judges of the Supreme Court authority to determine their own districts, assign themselves to these and fix their own times of holding court; also making the sessions of the Idaho legislature biennial instead of annual.

Williams is hard at work in the Finance Committee aiding in the perfection of the Tariff Bill and other important matters.

Mr. Henderson has been confined to his bed for more than a week past with illness. It is feared that he will lose the sight of one of his eyes—caused partly by an accident.

Senator Corbett is also here on business—and will remain about a week. He came down from New York about three weeks since and remained a few days. He makes a very favorable impression among all classes of men here. He will not only be a thoroughly practical and industrious Senator, but possesses decided political opinions and convictions. Oregon will have reason to be proud of her choice. Ex-Senator Stark is in the city. He is supposed to be here to look after the interest the people of New London, Conn., have in the establishment of the Navy Yard at that place.

B. F. Dowell, Esq., of Jacksonville, is also here trying to get some claims through the departments—mostly for dead horses and mules I believe. The Treasury Department not being inclined to allow these claims, he has written a long opinion and submitted it to John Wilson, Third Auditor.

Prof. Marsh, of Forest Grove, is here trying to raise funds to further endow the Pacific University. He also takes an active part in the Pacific R. R. matter, particularly the northern route.

Philip Ritz of Idaho—formerly of Oregon and Washington Territory fruit growing notoriety—lately arrived, for the purpose of getting an appropriation of $50,000 to re-open the Mullan road over the Bitter Root Mountains. This is a worthy object, but he will be very likely to fail in his undertaking, because most of the members of Congress are opposed to such appropriations.

Harry Failing is also in this city. He came down with Corbett; also, Jones, Gov. Gibbs' partner; and a large number from Idaho, among them Donthitt, Judge Gray, J. C. Henley, and others.

As to the confirmations of appointment, made by the President, the Senate has laid down this invariable rule: Where appointments were made by removing good officers for political reasons, they will be rejected. Hence the large number of nominations rejected a few days since. All nominations of Revenue officers for the States of Minnesota, Iowa, and the Pacific States and Territories, are referred to Senator Williams, and those whom he recommends to be confirmed are confirmed, and those whom he recommends to be rejected are rejected. In Idaho, Austin Savage will be confirmed as Assessor, while Geo. W. Thatcher will be rejected for Collector. Humason's nomination will be rejected, as there has been a change of programme in his case. Cole, newly appointed Governor of Washington Territory, and Murphy, newly nominated Governor of Idaho, will be rejected. And the bill regulating tenure of office will put an effectual stop to all further removals, unless with the consent of the Senate.

Mr. Johnson, of the Cascades, Oregon, is here, and the portage case of his son will soon be tried in the Court of Claims. Gen. B. F. Butler will make the argument on behalf the Johnsons. He is expected here next Tuesday, the 29th inst.

The National Academy of Science is now holding very important sessions in the room of the Senate Committee of Commerce. The principal scientific men of the country are present.

DOGBERRY.

Woolen Factory in Jackson County.

A few days ago we published an item relative to this new enterprise. The following more specific account we obtain from the Southern Oregon Press:

The long talked of, much agitated subject of establishing a woolen factory in Jackson county, seems at last to have assumed a tangible shape, and our citizens can congratulate themselves that ere long the busy hum of looms and the apparatus necessary to the manufacture of woolen goods will make music to our ears, and bring a jingle even to our pockets.

Through the energy and perseverance of some warm friends of the movement arrangements have been completed to proceed forthwith with the business. Articles of incorporation have been filed, and agents of the enterprise will visit our citizens for subscriptions to the capital stock, which is placed at $30,000, in 300 shares of $100 each. Below are the articles of incorporation:

That we, the undersigned, have associated ourselves together as a body corporate, pursuant to the Act of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, entitled: "An Act providing for private incorporations,"

And we certify—

1st. That the said incorporation assumes and shall be known by the name of the Rogue River Valley Woolen Manufacturing Company, and the duration of said Company shall be fifty years.

2d. That the said corporation proposes to engage in the business of erecting a factory building or buildings, and manufacturing woolen goods of various descriptions, at or near Ashland, Jackson county, Oregon.

3d. That the said corporation proposes to have its principal office or place of business in the town of Ashland, county of Jackson and State of Oregon.

4th. That the amount of capital stock of the said Company is Thirty Thousand Dollars.

5th, That the amount of each share of such capital stock is one hundred dollars.

THE "GREEK" OR FENIAN FIRE.—It is a solution of phosphorus in bisulphide of carbon. The peculiar properties of the former are well known, while those of the latter, as being a comparatively recent chemical preparation, are not generally understood. The bisulphide of carbon is a highly inflammable liquid, colorless, and almost transparent, giving off fumes of sulphurous acid when burnt. It volatilizes very rapidly at ordinary temperature, and when its vapor is mixed with air and a light applied, it inflames with a slight explosion. Its vapor is poisonous.—Lancet.

STATE ITEMS.

Parties at the Dalles have made arrangements for supplying that town with ice the coming summer, from the ice cave near Mount Adams.

It is rumored about the Dalles, says the Mountaineer, that the contract for carrying the mail from that place to Canyon City has been awarded to C. M. Lockwood.

The Mountaineer comes out under its new editorial management much improved in matter and appearance. The paper does credit to its new editor and proprietor, Lieut. W. M. Hand.

Hon. T. W. Avery who has been associated with J. C. Dow in the publication of the Umatilla Press, has retired from the business. His health is failing and he intends leaving soon for Southern Oregon.

The Mountaineer says that Messrs. Keeler, Richter and Pohl, are rapidly recovering from the serious injuries they received from the explosion of gunpowder, while engaged in firing salutes on the 22d of February last.

Mr. F. B. Holland, long a citizen of Oregon, and for some years a resident at Oregon City, died recently, we believe in California. His body arrived at the Dalles on Friday evening. The funeral took place on Sunday, the ceremonies being under the direction of the Masonic fraternity.

A correspondent writing from Josephine county informs a Jacksonville paper that the farmers along Applegate, and the other large streams of the county, who suffered by the freshet this winter, are busily engaged in repairing damages. The citizens are also engaged with commendable energy in mending the roads in a substantial manner.

We have a letter from Auburn which states that the new mines 70 miles South of that place are very extensive. Prospectors have struck a creek at a place where immigrants crossed it at an early day, and find considerable quantities of gold. One man took out $600 in 13 days. It may be that this is one of the places where the immigrants who came by "Meek's cut-off," discovered the gold of which everybody has heard so often.

The officers who started out in search of Crow and Culver, two of the parties engaged in the bloody affray at Champagne's, have returned after a fruitless search. Crow was traced to Crescent City, thence to Humboldt Bay, from which latter place he took passage for parts remote. Culver has not been heard from since leaving his home. As he has succeeded in evading his pursuers thus far, it is more than probable that he will make good his escape. So says a letter from Roseburg to the Southern Oregon Press.

On Thursday, 14th inst., says the Corvallis Gazette, a daughter of Mr. John Lawrence, of this county, aged nine years, met with an accident which proved fatal. The circumstances, as we learned them, were as follows: She was playing in the hay mow, with her younger sister, from whence she fell on a harrow, the tooth of which entered the scull, obliquely, on right temple—carrying away the bone so that the brain protruded. Dr. Sharples was called—the depressed portion of the skull was elevated, so that she felt quite cheerful and hopeful. But death ended her sufferings on the Monday following.

THE CANARY BIRD TRADE.—There are large importations of canary birds into New York on the German steamers. The birds come principally from the Hartz mountains in Hanover. The number of them that arrived in the past year is estimated by large importers at from 15,000 to 20,000, worth $60,000 or $80,000. The mortality among the birds on the passage is more than twenty-five per cent. In this country they are bred to some extent. One man, in Philadelphia, last year, raised three hundred, and another, in Buffalo, one hundred and fifty. Several persons in New York, New Jersey, etc., raise smaller numbers.

FAILED TO AGREE.—The jury in the late murder case failed to agree, and consequently were discharged; but the verdict of all who purchase goods at KOHN & FISHEL'S clothing store, No. 111 Front street, is arrived at with the utmost unanimity, which is, that they invariably get the best articles for the least money.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.—THE OLD BUCHTEL & CARDWELL PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, 80 First Street, has passed into the hands of JOSEPH BUCHTEL, Proprietor and Operator, who, having just returned from San Francisco, with ALL THE LATE IMPROVEMENTS, is prepared to take every style of picture known to the art.

MARRIED:

At the residence of A. Jubitz, in this city, on the 3d inst., by J. J. Hoffman, City Recorder, Mr. Wm. A. McCurdy, of Victoria, to Miss Hannah C. Ebinger, of this city.

At the residence of A. Bury, in this city, on the 2d inst., by J. J. Hoffman, City Recorder, Mr. Joseph Hunt to Miss Annie McBride, all of this city.

THESE WHEELS, unequaled and unrivaled in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, more than forty being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

On account of the extraordinary demand, our stock of wheels is considerably reduced, and we are entirely out of several sizes; therefore parties contemplating using our wheels, to be certain of securing them in time, should give their order at least three months before they expect to get them, that we may be able to make them by the time needed.

We cheerfully refer to all using our wheels, and are assured that all will affirm that our wheels accomplish all and even more than we claim for them. Address

SAN FRANCISCO ASSAYING

AND

REFINING WORKS.

No. 416 Montgomery Street,

(Successors to Kellogg, Hewston & Company.)

CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000!

Directors:

JOHN PARROTT, CHAS. E. McLANE,
WM. C. RALSTON, A. HAYWARD,
LOUIS A. CARNETT.

LOUIS A. CARNETT.......President and Manager.
JOHN HEWSTON, JR......Chemist and Superintendent.

THIS COMPANY HAVING GREATLY enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

THE TARIFF OF CHARGES

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED GOLD BARS.

One-eighth of one per cent. (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED SILVER BARS.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent, for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR REFINING DEPOSITS MADE FOR COIN OR FINE BARS.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.

On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.

On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.

On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.

Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

FOR COINING GOLD.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

RETURNS IN COIN IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers, in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

CHARGES AT U. S. BRANCH MINT.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 830½@949½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ¼ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:

850 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.

845 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.

865 par to equal San Francisco A. & R. Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents. mh1d2p

GAS FROM OIL LAMPS — Not every person is aware that oil lamps rapidly generate under certain conditions a poisonous gas, destructive to health and sometimes to life in very close rooms. We find in an exchange the following remarks which contain wholesome warning and advice: "The practice of burning common oil lamps in bedrooms is very pernicious and dangerous. The gas generated by the lamp is of a poisonous nature, and is exceedingly detrimental to health. ... If the lamp is allowed to burn as when very seriously ... in common use, the gas is nearly all consumed ... but when the wick is turned down ... the gas gives but a dim light in the room, the gas generated ... not consumed but escapes into the room. If the windows and doors of the apartment are tightly closed, as is generally the case in the winter season, the occupants cannot escape the injurious effects. A day or two ago the death of a young lady was recorded in Venango county from the effects of inhaling the poisonous gas from the oil lamp which she kept burning in her bedroom every night. If it is necessary to keep a light burning, let the wick be kept fully up, and if there is no transom over the door then by all means let one of the windows down an inch or more from the top. The practice of retiring to bed in a close room with an oil lamp dimly burning is most dangerous and the effect upon the respiratory organs will be seriously felt, sooner or later. Delicate persons cannot continue the practice long without experiencing the most serious results. The importance of proper ventilation is not fully understood and appreciated by the masses, and much suffering is entailed upon humanity by breathing a foul and poisonous atmosphere, especially in sleeping apartments. The health of children is frequently ruined—their constitutions broken down—by compelling them to sleep in illy ventilated rooms, and the fear of taking cold ... the great bugbear among timid parents, has cost many a child its life. A fire place (grate) with a fire is a good ventilator, but nothing is equal to the pulling down of the upper sash, which allows the foul and poisonous air to escape—and the room is so close that enough fresh air cannot find its way in through cracks and openings about the joints of doors and windows to supply the place of the escaping vitiated atmosphere."

THE COLUMBIA RIVER ROUTE TO IDAHO.—The Lewiston Journal, speaking of the Columbia river and the Chico overland routes to Idaho, after saying that the superiority of either route will be definitely determined by test and experience concludes with the following suggestion which may be worth heeding: "We trust in view of that fact that the people of Oregon will use their influence to secure an improvement of the route in the success of which they are so much interested, and that they will urge upon the Navigation Company, whose owners are mostly citizens of that State, a reduction of the price upon freight and passage. It seems to us that this would be the more effectual way of preventing 'damage' to the inhabitants of these cities. This would not only operate to destroy the threatened rivalry but would induce immigration, cheapen our living and lead to the further development of our mining interest. Upon the growth of this Territory [Idaho] depends to a great extent, the advancement of Oregon and high freights and passage go to retard in a great measure, our prosperity— a word to the wise is sufficient. We make no pretense of knowing whether the O S N Co can materially reduce the prices for freight and passage without loss but we do know that Oregon is deeply interested in ... the trade and travel of the interior territories via the Columbia river; and, we may suppose that the O. S. N. Co. has about as much interest in that matter as anybody. There can be no doubt upon another point: that California travelers to Idaho will go whichever way costs the least time and money. If the Chico route offers the shortest trip and the least expense, travelers will go that way. It then becomes a matter of policy for the Navigation Company to put their charges at the lowest living rates, so that the Chico road may not underbid them. In view of the facts that the O. S. N. Co absolutely control the question of prices on the Columbia route, and that Portland together with all Eastern Oregon has a deep interest at stake, we trust that public discussion of these matters will not be deemed officious interference with private business.

AN UNEXPECTED SUCCESS —Capt. Wolf of the Cascades, ... yesterday in getting his steamer's whistle to play. It was a magnificent success. For more than half an hour before the arrival of the Cascades everybody was ... attracted by a prolonged and distant whistle down the river, and no little excitement was created when it was ascertained that it proceeded from the Cascades ... miles down the river. The whistle ... blow, speculation as to the cause of it began ... to take more shapes than we should like to ... enumerate. On came the steamer, the whistle ... for an instant until she was made fast to the dock. Then it came out much to the relief of the ... crowd congregated on the wharf, that ... valve had been opened by the Captain at ... and that, on its own responsibility it had ... "let up" again. It was the longest blow out ...

SHATTUCK, JUDGE.—In the Circuit Court, ... 4th, the following proceedings were had. ... Oregon vs. Chas Cottrell, indicted for larceny ... of jury guilty as charged in the indictment ... sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for the term of thirty days, and to pay the costs of action.

State of Oregon vs. John Williams, indicted for setting ... device, motion for a new trial overruled ... to imprisonment in the county jail for the term of three months execution of sentence stayed till ... of the case by the Supreme Court can be had, upon ... filing a bond of $100.

State of Oregon vs. John Dougherty, indicted for permitting ... device to be set up on his premises; jury ... verdict, guilty as charged in the indictment.

F. W. O. D. DRILL.—Multnomah Engine Co No 2 ... this evening for "F. W. O. D Drill." ... Not long since one of the companies ... "K. C. Drill." We made out that "K. C." meant ... but what shall we say of "F W O D"? ... Whisky—no, we won't slander the Multnomahs by ... of anything stronger than lager. Suppose ... Fresh Water Oysters—pshaw! that won't do. ... Family Worship—we never heard of such ... company. We give it up.

... COURT.—Yesterday morning the 4th, the following cases were before the Recorder:
John D— ... charged with making threats to assault Dertheimer, defendant required to give bonds in the sum of $200 to keep the peace.
... charged with depositing the offal of ... in a yard near Alder street ... consideration.

AN OREGON MADE COACH.—Messrs. W. E. Cooper & Co of this city have made and shipped a coach for the use of the Pioneer Stage Company of Eastern Oregon and Idaho. ... that it was made to order light and low ... suit the mountainous country over which it is to run. The Concord coaches are too high and too heavy for ... road, hence this order for an Oregon made ... It is probably in no way inferior to the Concord ... either as to material or workmanship.

TREASURE SHIPMENTS.—The following are the sums of treasure ... per steamship Continental, March 3d:

Wells, Fargo & Co	$47,000
...	10,000
...	5,000
...	1,500
Total	$63,500

THE TANNER TROUPE.—A very fair house greeted the ... last evening of Mr. T. W. Tanner who had ... quite ill. "Nellie Cardinell," a new ... Miss Soledad, was heartily encored. We like ... of the piece better than anything we have ... The usual variety of attractions will be ... to-night.

... ACCIDENTS.—The Cincinnati ... two instances in one of which a man's ... because he was drunk and in the other ... he was sober. What's the moral? That's ... To provide against the first class of accidents get drunk and keep so; to provide against the latter, keep sober.

A GORILLA LOOSE.—A sensation story is told in the Idaho papers about a gorilla that has been seen somewhere on Snake river. He was lassoed once or twice but succeeded in breaking his bonds, and at last accounts was still at large. The Idahoans are pretty good on sensation stories but the Klamath Lake boys are still ahead.

ADJOURNED.—The U. S. District Court for the District of Oregon was yesterday morning adjourned by the U. S. Marshal, under instructions from Judge Deady to Monday May 6th. The continued absence of Judge Deady who is holding a term of the U. S. Circuit Court in San Francisco, is the cause of this adjournment.

FOR ... PASSENGERS.—Arrived per steamer Alert March 4th: 75 bales paper 45 boxes apples 42 sks dried apples, 5 bbls, 38 boxes eggs 1 calf 1 bale woolen goods ... 14 hf bbls tallow 67 sks bacon 520 qr sks flour 1 hf bbl sugar, 11 hf bbl produce, 5 sks bran, 147 sks feed.

CALICO BALL.—We learn from outside parties that the Tera Verda Society of Portland will give a Calico Ball at their hall on the evening of Friday, the 22d inst.— ... D L Walter and N A Hirstel constitute the committee of arrangements.

COUNTY COURT.—The County Court, Judge Marquam presiding, opened the March term yesterday morning but beyond the filing of a few motions no important business was transacted. The court at an early hour adjourned till this morning.

DAILY MAILS.—The Walla Walla Statesman congratulates the people of that town and valley that they now have daily mail connection with Portland as well as Salt Lake. The new arrangement went into operation on the 1st instant.

FAST DRIVING.—The owners of fast horses were improving the splendid weather of yesterday by trotting out their nags for airing and exercise. They made First street pretty lively during a part of the afternoon.

TREASURE RECEIVED.—By the Cascades yesterday Wells, Fargo & Co. received about $15,000 in treasure from the upper country.

THE ... CROSBY.—A private letter from Victoria gives intelligence that the Crosby arrived at Neah Bay on the 24th of February.

BRANCHING OUT.—Barman Bros. will receive a heavy stock of clothing and furnishing goods by the Ajax and will ... ly open a branch house at the old place of business on the river side of Front street, between Washington and Stark, under the superintendence of Mr. A. Backman, acting as their agent.

THE AJAX —This steamer may be looked for on Wednesday and is advertised this morning to leave again on or about Friday the 8th.

Don't fail to procure Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It has been used for thirty years with never failing safety and success by millions of mothers for their children. It corrects acidity of the stomach, relieves wind colic, regulates the bowels, and gives rest, health and comfort to mother and child. ... Office No. ... Street New York, and No. ... High Holborn London ... Sold by Smith & Davis ... Agents for the Pacific coast.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY —We know of no better way to save money than to recolor your garments and thus make them fully as good as new. This can be done by using the celebrated FAMILY DYE COLORS of Howe & Stevens, which are equal to the best French and ten times as cheap and convenient. Sold by Smith & Davis.

Are you aware that the premonitories of Consumption are Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pains in the side and chest, difficulties of breathing &c. If you permit these symptoms to run on tubercles will be the result, and end in Consumption. Now if you want to cure these diseases use ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM without delay. Consumptives should never give up and think there is no hope until you have tried ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM. It has cured many cases that physicians pronounced incurable. Sold by the dealers in family medicine generally. f18dlm

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is really a valuable medicament and unlike most of the patented articles of the day, is used by many physicians. It is particularly desirable in locations where physicians are not near, and in families will often save the necessity of sending out at midnight for a doctor. A True Life

There is, even on this side of the grave a haven where the storms of life break not or are but the gentle modulations of the untrippled and mirroring waters—an oasis not in the desert but beyond it a rest profound and blissful as that of the soldier returned for ever from the hard hips the dangers and the turmoils of war to the bosom of the dear domestic circle whose blessings he never prized at half their worth until he lost them

This haven this rest this oasis is a serene old age The tired traveler has abandoned the dusty crowded and jostling highway of life for one of its shaded and least noted by lanes The din of traffic and of worldly strife has no longer magic for his ear the myriad footfall on the city s stony walk is but noise or nothing to him now He has run his race of toil or trade, or ambition His day s work is accomplished, and he has come to enjoy tranquil and unharassed the splendor of the sunset or the milder glories of late evening Ask not whether he has or has not been successful according to the vulgar standard of success What matters it now whether the multitude has dragged his chariot, rending the air with idolizing acclamations or howled like wolves upon his track as he fled by night from the fury of those he had wasted his vigor to serve? What avails it that broad lands have rewarded his toil or that all has at the last moment been stricken from his grasp! Ask not whether he bridge into retire meet the wealth of the Indies or the poverty of the bankrupt, whether his couch be of down or rushes, his dwelling a hut or a mansion He has lived to little purpose indeed, if he has not long since since realized that wealth and renown are the true ends of exertion, nor their absence the conclusive proof of ill fortune Whoever seeks to know whether his career has been prosperous and bright ening from its outset to its close should ask not for broad acres nor towering edifices, nor laden coffers Perverted old age may grasp these with the yielding clutch of insanity, but they add to his cares and anxieties not to his enjoyments Ask rather, has he mastered and harmonized his erring passions? Has he lived a true life?

A true life! Of how many lives does each hour knell the conclusion, and how few of them are true ones The poor child of sin and shame and crime, who terminates her clouded being in the early morning of her scarce budded, yet blighted existence, the desperate felon, whose blood is shed by the community as the dread penalty of its violated laws, the miserable debauchee, who totters down to his loathsome grave in the Spring time of his years, but in the fullness of his feasting iniquities—these the world valiantly affirms have not lived true lives! Fearless and righteous world, how profound and how discriminating are thy judgments! But the idolater of self who devotes all his energies, his thoughts to schemes which begin and end in personal advantage, the grasper of gold and lands and tenements the devotee of pleasure, the man of ignoble and sinister ambition, the woman of frivolity, extravagance and fashion, the idler, the gambler, the voluptuary—on all these and their myriad compeers, while borne on the crest of the advancing billow, how gently is the reproof how charitable the judgment of the world! Nay does it not pick its way daintily, cautiously and inoffensively through the midst of drunkard making and national faith breaking?

A true life must be simple in all its elements Animated by one grand and ennobling impulse all lesser aspirations find their proper places in harmonious subservience, simplicity in taste in appetite, in habit of life, with a corresponding indifference to worldly honors and aggrandizement, is the natural result of the predominance of a divine and unselfish idea Under the guidance of such a sentiment, virtue is not an effort but a law of nature, like gravitation It is vice alone that seems unaccountable, monstrous, almost miraculous Purity is felt to be as necessary to the mind as health to the body, and its absence alike the inevitable source of pain A true life must be calm. We wear out our energies in strife for gold or fame, and then wonder alike at the cost and the worthlessness of the meed. How sloth is jostled by gluttony and pride wrestled by avarice, and ostentation boarded by meanness! The soul which is not large enough for the indwelling of one virtue, affords lodgment and scope and arena for a hundred vices, but a warfare cannot be indulged with impunity Agitation and wretchedness are the inevitable consequences, in the midst of which the flame of life burns flaringly and swiftly to its close

A true life must be genial and joyous. Tell me not, pale anchorite, of your ceaseless vigils, your fastings your scourgings The man who is not happy in the path he has chosen, has chosen amiss —Horace Greeley

Terrible Scene in a French Reform School

In October last there was a revolt in the French Juvenile Penitentiary of St. Anne, one of the Islands of Hyers On the trial of the ringleaders the following facts were elicited

The prison contained on the 28th September last, 288 prisoners who plotted a revolt, and accomplished it on the 2d of October. They drove out the turnkeys, released those who were in durance for bad behavior, pillaged, and drank and indulged in their usual staturnalia The aim of the revolt was the death of the spies First, it had been settled that they should be taken to the heath and to the bogs, there to be killed with stones, but that idea was given up for another far more atrocious The victual storehouse was pillaged, and another warehouse, containing petroleum oil and inflammable matter, was contiguous to it They broke open these doors, giving access to the passage leading to that warehouse A door, opening into the warehouse itself, more solid than the three others, resisted, and the only portion of that they could break was an upper panel, and to enter the petroleum warehouse through that aperture, they had to scale the door to get up to it The most daring went into the warehouse through that breach, and pillaged all the provisions Conduruer communicated to them an idea of his "Let us shut in there the spies, and then we shall set the place on fire!" The plan was adopted Two fellows, chosen from among the worst, were intrusted with the fulfillment of the diabolical deed, and they executed it well. The young ones, enticed to come and pillage the victuals in their turn, hastened to do it The arch plotter kept away some of them, and admitted the intended victims Fourteen boys were in the warehouse. He judged that the moment was opportune, and he told a certain For andon to light a heap of paper They had also taken the precaution of pouring on the floor a large vase full of petroleum. The flames therefore ran rapidly over the whole That fire was to devour the fourteen boys who had been admitted into the warehouse, one could escape only through the broken upper panel of the door and a jet of fire at that spot rendered such escape a sheer impossibility The flames had not yet ascended to the panel, when one of the unfortunate boys, named Garibaldi, saw the danger, jumped at the panel, and tried to get out

But another boy, Allard true to his orders, ran at him and thrice thrust his knife in Garibaldi's breast and legs The blood flowed in torrents, and the poor fellow fell back in the flames Then a heart-rending scene occurred All the boys inside managed to get at the window, clung to the bars, and cried for assistance with the accents of the most moving despair But the ringleaders now surveyed the victims with an implacable coolness The poor fellows suffered the most excruciating agony, their faces were black, their cheeks melted in the fiery flames, their heads blazed, but soon death put an end to their sufferings

A watchman who heard the screams of the victims and ran to their assistance, was set upon by the young demons who presided over the auto-de-fe and flung into a trench

Then the rebels wallowed in the grossest orgies It was only during the evening of the 4th that assistance came to hand The fire was still raging and if there had been a little fresh wind the whole range of buildings would have been destroyed

Four of the prisoners have been condemned to the galleys for life, and others to various terms of imprisonment—only three being acquitted

Holding Two Offices —General Dix is now Naval Officer of the Port of New York to which lucrative place he was appointed by the President immediately after the adjournment of the Senate on the strength of an elaborate opinion by Attorney General Stansbury, that the appointment could be lawfully made during the recess of Congress, though the contrary opinion had always been maintained by the Senate and acquiesced in by the Executive General Dix stepped into the vacant office, whose emoluments are worth $40 000 a year and has already drawn some $3 000 from it On receiving his appointment as Minister to France he sent in his resignation as Naval Officer, to take effect on the appointment of his successor His successor has not been appointed and is not likely to be very soon so that General Dix retains possession of two offices one of which yields more income than the united salaries of General Grant, Lieutenant-General Sherman and Admiral Farragut The question for the Senate to decide is whether General Dix shall be confirmed for both these offices, or for only one? and if but one which one? It is the general opinion that no officer of the United States shall hold more than one office the emoluments of which exceed $2 500 a year but General Dix Attorney General Stansbury and the President appear to think differently The public look with considerable interest to the Senate to learn what that honorable body thinks on the subject — New York Tribune

Lemhi

The following interesting letter we take from the Idaho World

Leesburg Lemhi or Big Bend Diggings }
January 2d 1867 }

Friend Underwood I arrived here on the 5th of December twenty one days from Idaho City With the exception of one rainy and two blustering days we had a very pleasant trip We found from two to six inches of snow from Rocky Camp to Fort Lemhi—a distance of 140 miles Our stock did well Stock will winter well on the river and in the Lemhi valley The climate is about the same as that of Boise valley—with out the Boise wind There is a great deal of good farming land on the Lemhi river which is about the size of South Boise and 75 miles long We traveled up Birch creek (which is forty five miles from Lost river) thirty miles and over a low divide to the head of Lemhi river thence down the Lemhi (the middle fork of Salmon) to its mouth There we forded the Salmon river which is about as large as the Boise, runs rapidly and is hard to ford The Discovery Camp are building a boat there now From the river to this place the distance is fifteen miles, over a high hill There is a good wagon road to the river, and a pack trail from there to this place There is a town at the river, which will be the Boise City of these mines They have two large stores there now

Leesburg by the way we came is four hundred miles from Idaho City, but not more than two hundred in a direct line Bannack is eighty and Virginia City one hundred and fifty miles distant There is an express that carries letters and papers to and from Bannack at one dollar apiece Our town is over half a mile long, contains about one hundred houses all built of logs with earth doors and roofs has two meat markets two blacksmith shops but as yet no saloons restaurants or hotels though considerable "valley tan" is consumed and next summer I think it will be an excellent market for liquors Small timber is plenty but no large trees The timber is a duplicate of that of South Snake river Beef sells by the quarter at 17c flour at 22c, and bacon at 60c per lb groceries 25 per cent above Idaho prices Dry goods and hardware not in the market. We have neither lawyer nor doctor

Now for the mines In this district there are about 3,000 claims recorded Nappias creek prospects well for seven or eight miles, and some claims paid from $8 to $20 when worked last fall One claim paid $500 for three men in one day's work which is the best I have heard of I helped Tom Wright to rock two half days The first day we got $20 87 the second $19 On the following day Wright and another man rocked out $48 75, and he says he has ground that prospects a great deal better over on Bear Track eight miles from here John Clowry told me some men were making $100 per day with a rocker, on Rapps & Arnold s creek They get good prospects on Alder creek, ten miles in another direction The recorder told me on Sunday last, that he could find from 20 to 30 cents to the pan in dirt from ten inches to eight feet deep New discoveries are being made every week The gold is coarse, from one cent to two dollars and goes current for $18 The lowest assay yet made, gave $18 40 I think the mines are as extensive as those of Boise Basin though not near as good However there will be a good deal of gold taken out here next summer.

We have a population of about 500 and more are coming every day If the mines prove to be as good as the people here think they are by next year, our population will exceed that of Boise county The mines are well watered Several ditches have been dug and others are in contemplation One large ditch, three miles long and carrying five hundred inches is almost completed A good deal of the gold is quartz gold and when the snow goes off, some rich leads will undoubtedly be found Ruby silver and argentiferous galena are found on the river So far, most of the gold has been found in creeks and gulches There are but few bars that prospect well, and no hill diggings have as yet been discovered, that I know of, though I am expecting every day to hear of their discovery I think they are here, as there is a heavy wash all over the country In some places the bed rock is granite, while in others it is a tough ferruginous clay The creeks have more fall than they do in Boise and the gravel is not so deep, ranging from three to ten feet The mining claims are the size of those in Boise, and every man who discovers gold in a new creek gulch, bar or hill, is entitled to a discovery claim The ground needs no representation until June, when jumping will commence, as some men have as many as thirty claims and it will be impossible for them to represent them all

These mines are in the big bend of Salmon river, and there are six different districts, with some good ground known to be in each of them How many of the three thousand claims recorded in Nappias district may prove good, remains to be tested From what I have written, you can form your own conclusions with regard to the future of these gold mines

S S HAWTHORNE

Explorations in Asiatic Turkey — The French and English Consuls of Erzeroum (Turkey in Asia) M Curtois and J G Taylor, have recently made an excursion into the interior, the results of which promise to be of great interest to the scientific world These gentlemen have, in this little explored country, collected much valuable information in geography, statistics and antiquarian matter to supplement the writings of Hamilton, Boree and Fontanier They have had the good fortune to discover the remains of a Roman town at some little distance from Erzinghian never before, we believe, mentioned by any traveler or author, whether Greek, Roman or Armenian A small village, called Sadak stands on the spot which the city once occupied, and the size of the latter must have been very considerable to judge by the magnitude of the remains It is also affirmed that they have been able to decide definitely the true position of the site of Nicopolis, the city which Pompey built in commemoration of his victory over Mithridates and which has long been a vexed question with learned men The original site had been variously placed at Devriki at Arabkir, and Kara Hissar, while Boreo, if we remember rightly, placed it near a town called Enderes Messrs Taylor and Curtois believe that it is at a little village called Purk not many miles from Enderes, that the ruins of the walls of the ancient city of Nicopolis are situated They have come to this conclusion by the discovery of a Byzantine inscription in admirable preservation, which gives a precise indication and description on this head to which the situation of some military outworks lately excavated near an old Roman road, exactly correspond

Prices of Land in England —At a recent sale of properties in Surrey, belonging to the estates of Overend, Gurney & Co, bankrupts, the place called Cormongers mansion and park and about 162 acres, brought £50 500 Holmesdale, 50 acres with houses and stabling, £19 500, Court Lodge 9 acres and a house £5 500 certain farms 148 acres £15 000—total, 369 acres, £80 500, equal to $402,500, or nearly $1 100 per acre "The model farm fetched upward of twenty thousand pounds, quantity of land not given "The Nutfield property brought nearly £150 000" These exorbitant prices of land, with the moderate prices of farm produce show that the proper wages of labor is merged in the price of land just as, in our Southern States the proper value of land was absorbed in the cost of slaves that had to be purchased to till it.

It shows, further the complicated process which will be required in the social reconstruction of England, whereby the land monopoly is to be broken up, the landlord system abolished the farmers to own the land they cultivate and the laborers to become intelligent and independent voters, continually looking forward with the hope of becoming themselves the owner of land Universal suffrage universal education the abolition of primogeniture and entails the statute of distribution extended to all property, the elevation of the morals of the masses will be mightily accelerated in their effects by a large emigration of the working classes, which will raise the labor to some proportion to the price of land

What is the Executive to Execute —A correspondent of the New York Evening Post submits the following

Your correspondent L T tells us what Lincoln wisely said in regard to the duty of the President of the United States to obey the declared will of the people Let me reinforce Lincoln s remark by a sentence written by Roger Sherman to John Adams, from the Convention which framed our Constitution He wrote The Executive is not to execute his own will but the will of the Legislature declared by the laws This seems plain enough for otherwise the Executive would be only a despot Napoleon III is an Executive who executes his own will Abraham Lincoln was an Executive who executed the will of the people

Another Ocean Yacht Race —An English paper of a late date says "It is rumored that at Southampton and currently believed, that Thomas Chamberlayne Esq, of Cranbury Park, the owner of the Old Arrow as she is familiarly called intends to challenge Mr Bennett, owner of the Henrietta to a trial of speed across the Atlantic The Arrow is the winner of many valuable prizes and has scarcely ever been beaten She is a cutter of one hundred and two tons Mr Chamberlayne is Vice Commodore of the Royal Squadron and is a thorough yachtsman and sportsman

The Fatal Child-Whipping Case—Verdict of Manslaughter

A dispatch to the New York Tribune dated Albany January 2 th says

The case of Joel Lindsley the clergyman of Shelby Orleans county New York who in June last caused the death of his son three years of age by whipping, for disobedience came on for trial at Albion on Thursday last on an indictment for manslaughter in the second degree The physician who made the post mortem examination gave the circumstances of the whipping as related to him by Lindsley he said about 9 o clock on the night of its death his wife (who was not the child s mother) went to correct the child for something it refused to do she failed to make him mind, and asked him to do it he said he commenced correcting him with a piece of shingle he whipped and talked to him alternately for 2½ hours he reasoned with him and tried to make him mind at the end of 2½ hours saw a change stopped whipping him laid him on a couch and called his wife she came and said Why Johnny is dying! he said he guessed not and took him off the lounge and he died in his arms he said the child fainted or had a spasm it rolled up its eyes and became still and died A neighbor who was called in immediately after the death testified that Lindsley was much moved walking up and down the room and exclaiming repeatedly He s gone poor Johnny is dead I have whipped him to death!"

Preparations were made for burying the child the next day but the Coroner interfered The body was taken out of the coffin and examined by the doctors On one side of the forehead there was a mark of discoloration and also on the jaw the arms were discolored to within two inches from the shoulder and down to near the elbow the discoloration covered nearly all the outside below the elbow the arms were discolored to near the hand the backs of the hands were bruised and swollen the backs of the fingers were bruised more than the hands the skin was broken on the fingers about nails, from the point of the hip posteriorly the parts were discolored except about the knees and the same below the knees to the feet the spots on the bottom of the feet had been blistered and broken, in the hollow of the foot the size of the bruises were about as large as a 50 cent piece and were irregular in shape; the child looked as though it had been bruised by a shingle Mrs Lindsley testified that the whipping was done with a shingle about an inch wide The jury after remaining out about eight hours brought in a verdict of manslaughter in the second degree Lindsley is about 48 years old, and passed through college and a theological seminary acquiring a reputation as a brilliant scholar He afterwards preached for three years in the West, and last at Manlius, N Y, leaving the profession on account of ill health. The attempt to prove that Lindsley was subject to mental disorders was not successful, though it was shown that he was of a moody and unamiable disposition, and treated his wife harshly

A Rare Instance of Generosity —Henry Ward Beecher related the following incident in one of his recent sermons

Not long ago a gentleman who was engaged in the coal oil business had made some $12 000 or $10 000 and he concluded he had made enough—extraordinary as it may seem—and that he would wind up his affairs and come home I do not believe one of you would have done it $15 000! Why that is just enough to bait the trap of Mammon Well, he wound up his affairs, and was on the point of leaving when he was met by a young man of his acquaintance (I believe they both live in New York) who had invested $6 000 all he had, in an experimental well, and had been boring until he had given out in discouragement And coming to this man, he said I shall lose $6 000 if I am obliged to give up my interest in the well" and begged him to take it off his hands "I am selling out and not taking on," said the man But the young man pleaded with him, and out of personal kindness, he said, Very well, I will take it."

In two days they struck a vein in this well, and he sold his share for $200,000 The young man was present when the check was drawn on New York for the amount and he felt like death and mourned and said ' It is always my luck I am always a little too late" And the man said ' You may take $10 000 of it if you want it." The young man thought he was jesting but he assured him that he was not, and said ' I will make it $20 000 if it will do you any good Or ' said he, ' I will make it $50 000 Well,' said he, take the whole of it—I do not want it Give me $6,000 and you may have the advantage of the good luck" And so he gave the young man the advantages of the $200 000 All of you who would have done that may rise up

The 30 remaining copies of Mr Halliwell's large folio edition of Shakspeare have been bought for the American market for £3 000 A copy of this great work was sold in New York city recently, at the sale of the library of the late William E Burton

Professor Greene of Rhode Island, makes out a strong case against Bancroft in reviewing the latter's judgment of his grandfather's conduct in the revolutionary war He makes it pretty clear not only that the historian did his character and services serious injustice, but in order to do this suppressed evidence that was before him, and garbled extracts from letters Bancroft has stirred up a large hornet's nest by his last volume There are no less than six serious and well sustained attacks upon his facts and judgments

Old Ideas —Von Helmont tells us that Adam was created without a beard, but that after he had fallen and sinned, because of the sinful propensities which he derived from the fruit of the forbidden tree, a beard was made part of his punishment and his disgrace, bringing him thus into nearer resemblance with the beasts, toward whom he made his nature approximate The same stigma was not inflicted upon Eve, because even in the fall she retained much of her original modesty and therefore deserved no such opprobrious mark Von Helmont observes, also, that no good angel ever appears with a beard, and this, he says, is a capital sign by which angels may be distinguished

Fountain of Life!

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARRIVE when a new direction is imparted to its course These epochs proceed from discovery of new facts shedding a light which changes the whole aspect of the science. The present is an epoch of this kind and this Great Remedy now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts, it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance.

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time in the arcana of Medical Science which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world. No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more easily and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER Thousands have been swept into their graves who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself. During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting Dr HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING S EVIL in the world, and eradicate the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made—provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured

FOR REFERENCE:

I would refer you to L L Peck of Portland Oregon and numbers of others as to what a miraculous effect it had in a short time in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years

He has secured the services of "Charley" (known to be the best cook in Salem and one of the best in the whole country) and other competent persons to manage the culinary department and is resolved to set as good a table as can be found anywhere—not in clap-trap, pomp and show flummery and fine furniture but in an abundant supply of the very best the market affords.

His Bar room will be kept warmed and lighted, and well supplied with newspapers periodicals and other suitable reading matter and kept in a manner which will make it an agreeable resort

In short he intends making an effort to please ALL who stop at the Bennett House And he most respectfully requests his friends everywhere to give the old and well known stand at least one more trial before concluding they can do as well elsewhere and promises if they are not well treated and properly cared for and at reasonable figures it will not be the fault of the public's most obedient and most humble servant

THE OYSTERS

PACKED BY

Louis M'Murray & Co

OF BALTIMORE,

ARE ACKNOWLEDGED BY THE ENTIRE San Francisco jobbing trade to be beyond comparison the best that come to this market That

THEIR EXCELLENCE IS NOT IMAGINARY,

Any one who has tried them will admit, and the simple ... ready ... the extreme care and immense expense lavished upon their preparation. Each Oyster is opened by hand with the knife with strict regard to the preservation of the flavor, by which means all the original flavor is retained Contrast this method with the one recently pursued of opening the Oysters in bulk by steam ... by which means the native flavor is lost and a manufactured one is substituted and the reason for the actual superiority of this brand is at once apparent

TO THE UNFORTUNATE

NEW REMEDIES, NEW RE...

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or disease absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, bloated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid state thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents and friends, attend to those who are suffering from any of these horrible life-destroying maladies and see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late, by sending them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to all who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing ... in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians of Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse, solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noises like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs and ... blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, ... flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs, consumption, night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief is not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to the patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co
